

INFORMATION ON NANATUNES

NanaTunes is a fresh burst of creative energy coming from “Mrs. Kate” Carpenter, folksinger, songwriter and storyteller. When she became a grandma, “Mrs. Kate” began writing a new batch of songs for her grandkids and the families of the world to enjoy. The Potty Training Song just couldn’t wait...it’s already been released as a single. NanaTunes will feature character-building songs (Orderly and Organized, Manners Rap, Habit the Rabbit) and food songs (Chicken in the Pan, Picky Eater and Mangia). There are lullabies (Soothe Me Softly, Talk to Nana) and bird songs (Painted Bunting, Colibri, Bird on the Beach). Mrs. Kate tickles the funny bone with Nothin’ I Can Do About the Wrinkles and Wanda the Wiper. It’s a family-friendly folk extravaganza, boundlessly energetic and chock-full of smiles, guaranteed to have you singing along in a jiffy.

Master-minded by award-winning producer, Jamie DeFrates, this recording will feature premiere musicians from northeast Florida and beyond. “Mrs. Kate’s” recordings are digitally distributed world-wide through I-Tunes, CD Baby, and other major internet stores. 57 of her songs have hit the Top Ten Charts on Broadjam.com. Mrs. Kate has been featured on Radio Disney and performs at major festivals throughout the south. Performing over 150 shows a year, Carpenter has shared her songs with over 400 schools and libraries worldwide.

Mrs. Kate will be auditioning both adults and children to sing on this CD. Here are the positions available:

4 CHILDREN, ages 7-10. There are positions for 2 boys and 2 girls.

3 ADULTS. There are positions for 2 women (one soprano, one alto) and one man (bass or baritone).

Parent or grandparent and child combos will be considered.

If you and/or your child are interested in auditioning for NanaTunes, please carefully read all documents posted on this part of the website, including the lyrics to all the songs, so you can understand what you are getting yourself into. It’s bound to be a fun, unique, once-in-a-lifetime experience!